

NEGATIVE SURVEY INFORMATION

In addition to tracts for which permission was not granted to survey, other targeted tracts were visited which did not meet the criteria for inclusion in the inventory as Significant Natural Heritage Areas. Information on such tracts is of value to those who conduct biological inventory or conservation work in the future. Information on tracts that yielded negative survey information was retained and is archived at the office of the Foothills Conservancy of North Carolina.